After St. Nicks Win Title. Player and Spectator Get Into an Argument.

The St. Nicks won the Amateur Hockey League championship at the St. Nicholas Rink last night, when they defeated the Wanderers by a score of 9 to 7 in a hard fought, game that had as its finale a fist fight between a spectator and Dick Kinsella, the Wanderers' point.

Kinsella and Turrell, the right wing Kinsella and Turrell, the right wing for St. Nicks, had been roughing it for some time before the end of the game, with the Wanderers player be-ing the chief offender. After the bell rang finishing the game and giving the title to the Santa Claus team, Kinsella and Turrell had an argu-ment as they skated toward the side

They were still wrangling when a man on the side lines took up the cudgels in favor of the St. Nick player and passed a remark at Kinsella. The latter took exception to it and the spectator jumped out on the ice and smashed Kinsella on the jaw. The latter retaliated in kind and the spectator smashed him in the face again before the players and officials jumped between them.
